NEW YORK, June, 1915

FELLOW CLASSMATES OF "1860":

It is difficult to condense the impressions received by those of us who were present during the four days of reunion at the late Commencement at Princeton, but as a matter of record, and especially for the benefit of those of the Class who were not fortunate enough to be with us, this brief account may be of interest.

The most remarkable feature is that after fifty-five (55) years, out of a graduating class of eighty-five (85), there are twenty-four (24) living, of whom fifteen (15) were at the reunion. As a result, a cup donated by "1901" to the Class showing the largest percentage in attendance at Commencement was awarded this year to the Class of 1860 for its average attendance of 62½%.

Those present were:

James W. Alexander, New York
Walter S. Brown, New York
Charles T. Berry, New York
*James A. Bryan, North Carolina
Edward W. Evans, New Jersey
*William A. Graham, North Carolina
*J. H. L. Gerdine, New York
*Charles Hall, New Jersey
Henry E. Hale, New Jersey
James B. King, Connecticut
*William M. Lamdin, Maryland
John E. Lanning, New Jersey
James A. Pearce, Maryland
*Lucius H. Warren, Massachusetts
Augustus W. Sexton, New York

* Those marked thus were present for the first time since graduation, at a class reunion.
